Canadian Legion Held Splendid Memorial Service

Sunday evening last a joint memorial service arranged by the Canadian Legion, was held in the Memorial Hall, where the building was filled to capacity.

Seats were reserved in the central section for the Old Guides and the Boy Scouts, under the leadership of Mrs. D. French and Fred J. Dunn respectively.

The two groups presented a smart appearance in their uniforms as they marched to their positions.

Seated upon the platform along with the Rev. Capt. Muncey and participating in the service were the Rev. J. T. Smith of St. Michael's and All Angels Church, and the Rev. A. H. Rowe, of the United Church.

The service of prayer, scripture reading, sermon and song, were all of a very dignified order, quite in keeping with the occasion being commemorated.

The singing of the Strathmore Choral Society in the various anthems was a very pleasing part of the service, and the two solos: "The Reckoning," taken by Mr. Gilbert H. Patrick, and "There is No Death" by Mr. C. A. Lydiate, were exceedingly well rendered.

Chap. Muncey, who is Provincial Chaplain of the Canadian Legion, gave an interesting and able sermon.

SUGAR BEET GROWERS RECEIVE $10.00 PER TON

RAYMOND, Alta.—Sugar beet growers of the province will receive $7 a ton for their beets next year. They will also participate in the usual bonuses included in the old contract, such as high test of sugar content and profit from higher sugar prices. The $7 a ton payment is guaranteed. The announcement to beet growers was made by T. George Wood, General Manager of the Canadian Sugar Company here. Under the new scale beet growers will gain over the 1925 basis of prices by nearly 25 per cent, or approximately $10 an acre.

Edmund Knyvet's Funeral Last Saturday

During the past week the friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. Knyvet have mourned with them in the very sad parting by death of their only son, a sore bereavement, when one so full of promise was cut off just in the early morning of youth.

The little lad suffered intensely during his brief illness, a fact which brought to the sorrow of the bereaved parents and sisters.

The funeral, which was conducted by Mr. C. W. Chase, was very largely attended last Saturday.

After a short service at the home, the remains were brought to St. Michael's and St. Angela Church, where the impressive service was conducted by the Rector, the Rev. J. T. Smith, after which the interment took place at Strathmore cemetery.

The pall bearers were H. H. Wooster, R. Dags, G. Griffiths and S. Slater.

The floral tributes were beautiful and so numerous that a separate card was required to convey them. Among these the following were noticed:

Town Council Financially Assists Women's Institute

A regular meeting of the Town Council was held on Tuesday night, November 9th, presiding and Council for Minor, Bailley, Moore, Schulte and Quinn present.

Secretary-Treasurer Wears read the minutes of the last meeting, which were found correct and confirmed.

Deputy Mayor Schulte reported upon his interview with Engineer Jackson, and Contractor Ross, in regard to the probable cost of repairing the Calgary Highway which they estimated at about $1,000.

It was the consensus of opinion of the Councillors that any small expenditure would be simply waiting for the Town funds, and further that it is a decided injustice for the Provincial Government to expect towns of the population of Strathmore to carry any such a burden, in fact it cannot be done.

In the Province of Saskatchewan the urban districts were relieved of this outlay.

A resolution was passed that the highway be left in its present condition.

In connection with the lease of town lots to the Curling Club, the rental decided upon was $60 per annum for the next three years, and Mr. Wears will prepare a lease upon these terms.

It was decided to send Mayor Bell as a delegate to the Convention at Edmonton on December 1 and 2, with instructions to present a strong resolution to that organization, presenting the claims of towns, to be relieved of the burden of making and maintaining highways within the town limits, through property not used as business property.

The secretary-treasurer was instructed to notify all persons whose assessment for improvements, have not been made for 1925, and that Assessment Nye be requested to complete assessment at once. Councillor Bailey was asked requested "report on the road, but he was out of the hall and he could not find Jim Moran."

The terms of office of Deputy Mayor Schulte expired on December 1st, and Councillor Quinn was appointed Deputy Mayor for the balance of the term.

Complaint was registered that some of the draymen were damaging the sidewalks and leaving them in a dangerous condition after unloading cargo, recently suggested was the cancellation of license and a fine for future acts of this kind, the by-law covering the draymen to be so amended.

Deputy Mayor Schulte was instructed to proceed with the work of repairing the building to house the new electric motor.

A communication was received from the Women's Institute, asking for assistance in financing the proposed New Rest Room, which that organization are planning to furnish to the women of Strathmore and the Bow Valley.

Feeling that at least a satisfactory solution had been found in maintaining such service in a satisfactory form, the council decided to make them a grant of $100, which was carried unanimously.

J. L. McLean, who has been a visitor in the Calgary General Hospital for two weeks or more, is getting along satisfactorily, and expects to return home shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. DeLamond, were the guests of Mrs. Bakman over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray, of Three Hills, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh. They report snow to the depth of four or five inches in the vicinity around Three Hills.

The Ladies Aid will meet at the home of Mrs. Showlows on Thursday December 2nd.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Fawcett moved into town this week, and will occupy the house formerly owned by Mr. Taylor. They have made several improvements and added a furnace.

SCOUT NOTES

FIRST STRATHMORE TROOP BOY SCOUTS

The Troop are making very good progress with their work for Signal-ler's Badge, and they will be able to pass the required test sooner than anticipated.

The number of Scouts and Wolf Cubs on parade at the Memorial Service on Sunday last was very good and it is hoped that they will be able to appear at such gatherings of a Community nature often.

A letter has been received from Mr. Solway, the Provincial Secretary, wishing the Troop every success and expressing hope that they will be able to visit us soon.

The collection of toys and clothing for the Herald Sunshine Fund is growing fast, and a shipment will be made soon.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

The Editor, Strathmore Standard.

Dear Sir: Statements have recently been made by supposedly intelligent people, that the Boy Scouts Association is aided financially by the Government, but as this is misleading I think that the facts should be given publicly.

In the year 1924 the Provincial Government realizing the value of the work done by the organization made a grant of $10,000 for the purpose of assisting in the establishing of a provincial office in the city of Edmonton.

This is the only financial aid given by the Government either before or since, and so far as the local Troop is concerned not one cent has been received from any source other than the contributions of the members of the Troop, what they earned by public effort, and the annual fees of the members and not themselves.

The finances of the organization are supported by a few public spirited individuals in the Dominion who make annual donations to Provincial and Dominion Headquarters for the carrying on of the work there, and none of these donations are passed on to Troops. Those individuals realize the value of the work done by the movement. Any of the critics of this organization wish to debate any matters they consider it has, the undersigned is ready at any time to debate publicly its merits, and to prove its superiority over any other boy's organization.

It is regrettable that this old established organization of worldwide character should be subjected to petty and unjust criticism by people who lack the understanding to realize its value in a community.

Thanking you for trespassing on your valuable space, I am, Sir, Yours faithfully,

FRED J. DUNN, Scoutmaster, First Strathmore Troop

A Carleland farmer was calling down Harold Smith for carrying a lantern on the way to see his girl. The idea! he exclaimed. "I never carried a lantern when I went courting. I always went in the dark." "Yes," replied Smith, "and look what you got. You bet I don't take any such chances. Look 'em over good and plenty, none is too good for yours truly."

ONTARIO EXPECTS
THIRTY MILLIONS
GOLD PRODUCTION
TORONTO, Ont.—Ontario continues its progress as a gold producer with a record production for the eight year's output of $22,000,000.

Months of the present year of 22,750,000. This is the high water mark in the history of the yellow metal in that province. The Provincial Government estimates a total record production for the eight year's output of $22,000,000.

PAY 17,000 GUINEAS FOR RACEHORSE

LONDON, Eng.—A record price of 17,000 guineas for an Irish-bred yearling has been paid by the Aga Khan out of Beirut, and was bred at the National Stud, Tully, Co. Kildare.

Previously the highest price paid for a yearling had been 14,500 guineas by Lord Glanely, in 1920, for Blue Ensign.

Blue Ensign never won a race, and once actually fell over when he had nothing to beat.

Last year Sir Victor Sassoon paid 12,500 guineas for Fete (an own sister to Cogh), whom it has now been possible to train.

10,000 Guineas Stipend
The Aga Khan gave 10,000 guineas for Gay Baby, who has been unsuccessful in all her four races.

But the biggest yearling bargain ever made was with the famous Stipend.

At the disposal of the late Duke of Westminster's stud in 1904, Mr. Stipend went to the then fabulous price of 10,000 guineas for this filly.

Among other races, Stipend won the One Thousand and Two Thousand Guineas, the Oaks, and St. Leger although beaten out of a place in the Derby by Ard Patrick.

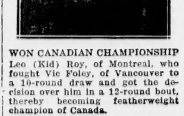

TEX RICHARD'S PLANS ARE DUE FOR ANOTHER CHANGE

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Tex Richard's plans for a heavyweight championship fight next September once more have come into conflict with the rule of the New York State Athletic Commission.

James A. Farley, chairman of the board, whose support of the challenge of Harry Wills led to the shifting of the Dempsey-Tunney battle to Philadelphia, today said that the sixth month period within which all champions are required by the New York regulations to defend their crowns would apply to Tunney the same as it had to Dempsey and all other title-holders. Fulfillment of this rule would require him to sign for a championship match before next April. Jack Sharkey is Tunney's only challenger on the commission's list so far.

Richard considers Dempsey as "Tunney's logical rival." He has announced his plans to continue an elimination heavyweight series at the Garden, with Paulina, Pearson, Maloney, Sharkey and Delaney to fight it out. He then proposes to fight the winner against Dempsey in an early outdoor fight, with the survivor to battle, Dempsey, however, has indicated he would like to continue in one or two preliminary matches this winter at the Garden.

HOMESTEAD ENTRIES INCREASE GREATLY THIS YEAR

OTTAWA, Ont.—Homestead entries in the four western provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia, continue on a much larger scale this year than last. September entries, as reported by N. C. Cole, Controller of the Department of the Interior, were 264 or an increase of 125 over the same month last year. Saskatchewan heads the list with 130 entries, against 22 last year. Alberta comes next with 118 as against 107; Manitoba shows 48, compared with 29 last year, while British Columbia dropped from 11 last year to 9 this.

THE BLANK IN MODERN CIVILIZATION

By C. C. Walker

While discussing various sociological and economic problems with one of the leading lawyers of Calgary a few weeks ago, he made this statement: "I cannot believe that people are generally happier today with their equal distribution of money, than during the days of feudalism."

After deliberating this statement, one may not well but accept the idea as being very nearly correct; and to do so would mean that modern civilization is almost a failure, after all. We have invented new machinery, new methods, and have discovered new ideas, and yet serene happiness, which must always be our goal, is little nearer than before our perfecting of the agencies which should promote it.

We have tried the world with all the sciences for fulfilling our many needs and desires—how may we arrange to intelligently use them? Let us look into the schools—are we training ourselves thereby to grow into a full state of happiness and make use of what we find before us? Does our educational period develop the powers which tend to promote happiness? The noblest of human desires is the desire to think originally and to do of one's own initiative.

Unfortunately our antiquated school systems in the greater part of North America limit rather than develop this—the desire for self expression. The pupil is trained to accept an idea rather than to compare an opinion. In her command to the pupil, the teacher is taught to use the word "remember" far more often than the word "think". In one instance which I might cite, a teacher called upon a child during a class period: "Gordon, what are you doing?" "I'm thinking," he replied. "Then I think you'd better leave the room," commanded the teacher.

No wonder the Western Canadian student is unattractive. In both the History and Civil Government courses he is taught to memorize only hard and dry facts, and is compelled to accept controvertible questions of political economy, as well as of legal and industrial development, as matters of fact. Leaving school or upon entering into the higher grades, he finds that as ideas are further developed he must "unlearn" what he was once either compelled to accept as true, or play the hypocrite examining time. If he expected to pass the required standard.

"Remember" is the keyword to our whole school system, and I speak of it after having made a close survey covering a period of several months and discussing the educational question with several of the able High School instructors of the province.

A commission was appointed some two years ago to study educational problems in this Province, and, adding upon their reports, our Provincial department of education has made some important improvements in the text books supplied—reconstruction requires time; but when a number of texts shall be supplied in each subject, one pupil studying from one author and one from another of a different angle of thought, and the mass of ideas are compared in class period discussion, (that pupils may be encouraged to do their own thinking) then will we become a nation of thinking men and women, casting our ballots intelligently and ceasing to be only "cogs in the wheel"—we having cultivated individual expression will find the civilization which we have built up promoting our happiness, supplying all needs, and urging us to express the beautiful in all things.

FIRST PRIZE ESSAY FIRST PROVINCIAL DIVISION

Canadian Legion B.S.L. Essay Contest, November, 1925.

"Canada's Part in the Great War"
When the news that Great Britain was at war was flashed around the Empire, others were eagerly made by the overseas Dominion. A wave of loyalty swept Canada from ocean to ocean. Not for the love of battle, but for the last of conquest, not for the sake of honor, to maintain solemn pledges, and to uphold the principle of liberty the Canadians entered the war.

Under the command of Generals Alderson and Byng, and also Sir Enderbury, Canada's heroes won countless honors. In the trenches of Flanders and France the Canadians won undying glory for themselves and for the Dominion.

At the battles of Passchendaele and Vimy, the Canadians, under the command of General Currie, showed the world that Canada was not only a fighting force, but a nation of men who were willing to sacrifice for the sake of their country.

A REAL DIAMOND

The hardest diamond in the world is the property of the Chevrolet Motor Company which has used the big diamond continuously during the last 10 years in the dressing of abrasive wheels for precision grinding needs so that the Chevrolet standards of accuracy.

Due to its extreme hardness, "C66" as the gem is prosaically designated in the Chevrolet records, has outlived probably $200,000 worth of diamonds used by the company.

R. W. Smith, grinding engineer of General Motors and inventor of a patented method of setting diamonds, contends that "Old C66" is a freak.

It is a South African black ball diamond originally weighing about 20 carats," he said. "Today, after 10 years of continuous service in turning the grinding wheels used on piston jobs, it still weighs 25 carats. An ordinary grinding diamond would have worn out years ago. Old C66" is so hard that it requires resetting only about three times a year. Only diamond turning will give the absolute accuracy essential on a wheel used in sizing such important parts as engine bearings and pistons."

In his patented method of setting diamonds he first electroplates the exterior with copper which forms a union so close as to be invisible even under 1,000 magnifications. A circular recess in a steel slug used to hold the diamond in the wheel-truing machine is then filled with molten (use metal). The copper-plated diamond is immersed in the metal which hardens, leaving exposed about one-third of the gem's surface.

This core of true metal gives the diamond complete protection against damaging high temperatures which might result should the grinding machine fail to play water upon the diamond while it is truing a wheel. The true metal will melt and release the diamond at 470° F or 250 degrees below a temperature that might injure its surface.

After being placed in the grinding machine under a stream of water, the diamond is moved back and forth against the surface of the wheel which revolves at a speed of 6,500 feet or more than a mile per minute. The even friction of the diamond dresses the face of the wheel smooth and true. The wheel then is used in grinding operations upon bearing, pistons and other important engine parts to which it confers the unvarying microscopic accuracy demanded by the standards department as Chevrolet's assurance of reliable service and long life.

It is hoped that a large number of the rural schools of the district will take part in the Spelling Tournament, and also be prepared to furnish one item in the concert part of the program.

Armistice Day was kept in each room by a short talk to the children by the teacher in charge, and by two minutes silence.

It has been the custom of the School Board to award a prize of a book to the pupil in each room obtaining the most points for school work at the School Fair. The following are this year's winners: Room 1, Pauline Evans; Room 11, Bernice Whitehead; Room 14, Helen Shrimpton; Room 15, May Taylor; Room 17, Alberta Newell.

LANGDON

Ruby Weisheimer was taken ill very suddenly last Wednesday morning. She was rushed to General Hospital, but her condition had worsened before she got there. The operation was performed at once, and for several days her condition was critical. She is still very ill, but everyone hopes for her speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Thompson and son, of Glenora, were Langdon callers on Sunday. Mr. Thompson has contracted to build the new Lynch house.

Groups numbers 6 and 7 of the W. I. under the leadership of Mrs. H. W. Jessup and Mrs. H. W. Wightman, held a very successful concert and dance Friday evening. Three prizes, a bar of soap, a cake of chocolate, and an angel food cake were given for the opening "cake walk" and were won by Mrs. J. Brander, Miss K. Mac, and Miss Frances Cooney. A prize for the most successful waltz was won by Mr. and Mrs. Gerin, of Cheville. The following artists from Calgary helped to make the concert such a splendid one: Mrs. H. J. McLean, soprano; Miss E. McIntosh, pianist; Mrs. Nichol, soprano; Dr. W. H. Kenworthy, madrigal; Miss DeLone, educationist; Dr. M. C. Salmon, talk on Armistice. Mrs. M. C. Salmon acted as chairman. The proceeds are for the W. I. building fund.

Messieurs P. G. Fulton and E. T. Moe were Chanzy visitors on Wednesday, when they attended the ceremonies in connection with the marking the site of the signing of the Balfour treaty.

The Langdon Hockey Club is very busy building the new skating rink.

BAINTREE

Those who have their doubts about the materialization of Baintree Hall should have been at the Community Club's last meeting, held Thursday at the home of Mrs. P. E. Waters. A large turnout of the members spent the afternoon enthusiastically allotting themselves work in connection with the bazaar to be held in the school house November 20th. Although the club is comparatively small, and the building of a hall is an undertaking of some size. These women determined to devote most of their spare time to this cause until Baintree Hall is no longer a desire but a reality. The general public will have an opportunity to help out by patronizing the sale of work and also by donating articles where possible. A special meeting will take place at Mrs. Long's home next Thursday to complete all arrangements and also to receive donations from any interested in this cause. The public is cordially invited to attend and all contributions will be most gratefully accepted.

Canada in the Great War

Three hours after Great Britain had declared war a special session of the Canadian Parliament was called. Sir Robert Borden, the Prime Minister, became leader of a people politically united. Never before had this happened in Canada's history. The leader of the opposition, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, called a truce, and party activity ceased for the duration of the war, a decision responsive to the will of the people.

A wave of patriotism swept over Canada. Canadians realized that the freedom of all countries was being challenged, and, as a free nation under the flag of the Empire, Canada realized her duty and opportunity. Canada resolved to do her bit, and so determined was that resolve that rising occurred in many of the western towns through eagerness to enlist, and hundreds of miles from outposts of civilization to recruiting stations. For a short period of time of suspense previous to the war, Canada kept in close touch with the European situation, and when war was actually declared an infantry division was offered the mother country. With the greatest enthusiasm the call for 250,000 men was answered and accepted.

Canada sent over approximately half a million men. She kept in the field four divisions, which formed the Canadian corps, besides furnishing battalions of railway troops and fifty per cent. of the aviators of the British Air Service. The Canadian corps contained possibly the four most famous divisions of the British army. There perished as a result of the war, 60,000 Canadians.

The first division of the Canadian corps, greatly distinguished itself and saved the situation in the second battle of Ypres on April 22, 1915, when the Germans launched the first gas attack. In 1916 the Canadians forming three divisions were heavily engaged at St. Eloi in April, and later at Sanctuary Wood and Hooge. In September and November the four Canadian divisions fighting in the battle of the Somme were again very heavily engaged, and especially distinguished themselves at Concellette and Maquet Farm. In 1917, in the taking of the powerful position of Vimy Ridge, the Canadians bore a leading part. In 1918 the Canadian cavalry and Railway troops took an active part in checking the German advance in March. In August the battle of Amiens, the Canadian corps, in one day made the deepest advance which had been made during the war. The Canadians were very successful in the battle of Arras in September. Casualties in both these actions were serious. On October 30th the Canadians took Cambrai in what was perhaps the hardest fought battle in the war, and made large captures of men and material, though suffering heavy losses themselves. On November 11, on which day Armistice came into force the Canadians took Mons shortly before they had taken Dinant and Valenciennes.

In these operations the Canadians took 55,000 prisoners, retook 120 towns and villages, and liberated 130,000 French and Belgian prisoners. These records resulted in the Canadian corps being called the spearhead of the British army. The Canadians never permanently lost a position, and during the last two years never lost a captured position once consolidated. These are some facts which Canadians might well view with pride.

Some results of Canada's part in the Great War were that:

1. She became a nation in the eyes of the world.

2. She was given a vote in the council of the League of Nations.

3. The bond between Canada and the mother land became closer than ever.

4. She was permitted to have her own ambassador at Washington.

5. The name Canada became known throughout the civilized world.

The above is the winning essay submitted by High School pupils, and the medal was awarded to Miss Dorothy James, of Antelope.

LOCAL SETTINGS

Ben Pressenden, Chairman of the Trustees Board of the Strathmore Elks, has placed an order for an ample supply of "Goats Milk" to be used with discretion at the Elks' Dance on Friday, November 26. This is a real novelty for which any Elk will gladly vouch.

Constable Tate was looking kind of weary while parading around on Monday, when it was learned that he had just returned from escorting the two burglars to Prince Albert Penitentiary, where he made arrangements with the Warrents and for their Xmas presents for the next three years.

One of the energetic young men who robbed the Poole Hardware at Rockyford. They are a live and the only constable did not take any chances of losing those cameras.

Art and George Giroux, two of the most promising of the local hockey boys left on Saturday for Saskatoon, where they will work out with the professional team. The Giroux boys have always been factors in the success of the local club, and a host of friends wish them success in their new environment. Their place on the local team will be difficult to fill.

John Davis offered to wager Jim Swanson that he could out run him from Second street, to the C.I.R. Headquarters. Jim was "all hot up" and "rarin'" to go when along comes the proprietor, R. Hamby, who inadvertently happened to mention the word "fish," and for some unknown reason the race was all off.

Louis George, late manager of the Carlsland Chateau, was a visitor in town on Monday before leaving for Calgary to join the sons of Rost. Louis claims he never would have sold out if he could have induced Skirts to cook regularly. Skirts did the whole thing, said Louis sadly.

The Elks' recognition that the Tennis Club dance was a real success, and they are vowing with each other in order to equal, and if possible surpass that successful entertainment. They have engaged the Gaiety five-piece orchestra, which is a guarantee for the music, while the Women's Institute are providing the "rats," which needs no further vouching. Don't forget the date, Friday, November 26.

The Armistice dance was made the occasion of presenting the gold medals to the winner of the High School Grades for the best essay on "Canada's Part in the Great War." Commande Greville, Chairman of the Strathmore Branch of the Canadian Legion, presented the award to Miss Dorothy James, whose essay appears in this issue. Miss May Taylor was only two points behind and others worthy of special mention are Florence Garrett, Hazel Frohner and John Garrett.

For the Elks dance the ladies will be admitted free, while the gents will only be charged for $1.50. Never any shortage of the fair sex at an Elks' dance. Next Sunday would be a good date for you to arrange with your best girl for the date Friday, November 26. If you don't take her, you can bet your last two-bits that she will be present and looked after by a real live Elk.

Detective Schooppe, of Calgary, would like to interview Fred Martinovitch, who excused himself at Moose Jaw a few months ago while accompanying Schooppe from Ontario. Since that time Martinovitch has been living in retirement until he again fell foul of the law in Washington. If the Provincial police really want to bring Martinovitch back, they had better send Constable Tate down after this bird, and he sure would have to prove that he was a sick man that he had been out of his fancy brackets removed.

On Saturday Frank Miller completed the sale and transfer of the hotel at Carlsland, popularly known as the Chateau, to J. Graham Forbes, of Calgary for a long time with the Army and Navy Club, and is a very popular young man, whom his friends are quite convinced that he will make a host of friends in Carlsland. "Boss" Grogan says anyone can teach him for a few bones at any time, and if he should happen to be short, you can get it from Smithy, who was included in the good will sale.

The proceeds of the collection taken at the Memorial Service were given to "The Last Post Fund." This fund is to provide burial for any ex-serviceman who dies without means.

Reeve H. S. B. Chamberlain and Councilor Weyers will represent Bow Valley at the Municipal Convention at Calgary next week.

Angus Watson has been appointed returning officer for Bow Valley Municipal election, to be held next February.

Cassie Lauwerysen has secured the services of "Grandpa" Layzell to dispose of his stock and effects on November 26. "Cassie" is going back to Holland to eat his Xmas turkey, but his friends expect he will be back again before the flowers bloom again in May.

Just as an example of the color effects at the Elks dance on Friday, November 26, there will be the nationally uniform of purple and white, adorned the Apollo form of Laval held, well worth the price of admission alone to all lovers of the artistic.

Miss Tillie, of the Department of Agriculture staff, will be in Strathmore on Thursday, November 26, and give a three-day demonstration to the members of the Strathmore U.F.W.A.

Everybody in the Bow Valley knows John Davis, of Ardmore, and his close friends have reached a state of great anxiety about him. A great change has come over him. Some time ago he began making trips to Stettler, ostensibly looking for a bird dog. Finally he returned with a very fine specimen, but the trip to the northern town did not come, in fact are still being continued. A "wise old owl" at Ardmore whispers to the Standard that John is threatening to commit matrimony. First he had a home, next he got the dog and now the next step that is anticipated is that John will join the army of Ancient and Respected Benedictines, before many moons have passed. The "wise old owl" intimates that he discovered John sitting in wrap admiring of a well diamond in Birks at Calgary, which is ample evidence to the Standard that John has at last abandoned successfully.

Auction sales are the order of the day and another one where the most of the video and angelic countenance of auctioneer Layzell will be in evidence, will be at the sale of John Hoshorn, near Carlsland on Friday, November 26.

Davison's Drack has been shafted, and the night may be haunted by Constable Tate. It was hanging high at the King Edward Hotel, and attention is being directed towards a Western, musical gentleman of Scotch ancestry.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Artie McLean, of Nipawigan, are congratulating them upon reaching the date of their golden wedding, and extending best wishes that they may be spared to celebrate many more anniversary. They were married at Dansthal, Scotland on November 17th, 1878.

On Thursday night Strathmore Dramatic Society will present "The Minister's Bride". A large number of tickets have been sold, and it is fully expected that a large house will greet the players, who have done no end of work in order to produce a clever piece of work. The play is very funny, and you will get a laugh every minute.

ROCKYFORD

The inhabitants of Rockyford and district were greatly shocked on Saturday morning when the news spread of the terrible tragedy at Rosebud, when two children, sons of Mr. and Mrs. O'Farrell, aged seven and four years, were knocked down and instantly killed during the switching of cars on the C.N.R. It would appear that the eldest boy lost his life in an heroic effort to save his little brother, who had tried to pass in front of two cars which were being shunted. He then was instantly called from Rockyford, but the children were beyond aid when he arrived. The greatest sympathy is felt by the entire community with the parents, who have many friends in Rockyford.

Several of the Rockyford ex-soldiers are joining the Strathmore branch of the Canadian Legion of the British Empire Service League.

On Wednesday evening a party was held in the Community hall at Rockyford to bid farewell to Miss Wells, who, for some months, has been employed at the Rockyford telephone office, during which time she has made many friends. There was a large crowd, and dancing was carried on into the small hours. Miss Wells was presented with a purse as a small token of the esteem in which she was held.

The many Rockyford friends of Mr. and Mrs. Kayvett and family, wish to take this opportunity of offering their sympathy to them in their recent bereavement.

RECORD YIELDS OF WHEAT BY ALBERTA FARMERS.

Further returns received at the Provincial Department of Agriculture indicate the heavy yields of wheat that are being recorded in various parts of the province. Alex. Gedlin, at Majorville, reports 35 bushels an acre on 100 acres; H. Sorensen, at Ladue, has 37 bushels average on 104 acres; M. Martin, of Strone, reports 23 bushels over 100 acres, and H. Linde, of Wynne, had 42 bushels average on 29 acres. On 200 acres at Heister, D. Morgan had an average of 38 bushels. P. Vilott, near Westlock, had 45 bushel average, and Allan Gilligan, at Chairmont, in the Grande Prairie District, had a 49 bushel average on 220 acres. Wm. Knapp, at Fortisash, had 41 bushels an acre. The Pincher Creek Echo reports D. D. Orcutt, of Fishburn, as having harvested 36 bushels an acre on 600 acres, and A. Primson, of Pincher Creek, as having harvested 40 bushels an acre on 24 acres.

ROSEBUD

In reverence to the little O'Farrell children who lost their lives so tragically Saturday morning, the Red Cross Dance has been postponed until some future date.

Mrs. Lulu Forster and family are now living in the Thorne house at the post office.

The Thanksgiving dinner at the C.N.R. was well attended, and about one hundred dollars made. The patrons were astonished and delighted at the little caterer, Miss Green, of Calgary, who is only ten years old. She kept the house in an uproar all the time from her first number until the last. The Ladies Aid wish to thank everybody who assisted in making the event such a success.

Mrs. W. E. Hyman is ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. D. W. Dewiler, in Calgary.

Miss Ellen McNaughton, now of Hainbow, but formerly of this place has been visiting Mrs. Barlow and Mrs. Brunner the past week. Miss McNaughton expects to enter the Holy Cross Nunn as school for Nurses in the first of the year.

Miss Helen Fox spent a few days with Miss Koller's family last week.

The dinner, entertainment, and dance given by the Catholic Ladies Aid was a wonderful success. The boxing match was a scrum as was the election "Who's Cray, Now?" Everybody waxes for more of this kind of entertainment. The place selections by Father Boltz were greatly enjoyed as always. The ladies cleared a large sum.

F. W. Shultz was called to Eugene, Washington, by the illness of his wife recently.

Miss Mitchell, pianoforte teacher, will be at Mrs. McElrath's home each Saturday. She is a teacher of exceptional ability from Calgary, and intends to take over Mrs. Bourke's pupils.

WOULD LINK EMPIRE BY AIR
Sir Samuel Hoare, British Air Minister, outlined a proposal to the Imperial Conference for linking the various parts of the Empire together by aeroplane and airship lines. Canada would be placed within 2 1/2 days of London by this means. Premier King has promised the erection of mooring masts.

BIG YIELD OF POTATOES

A most remarkable record of potato production has been reported from a plot of little more than half an acre on the farm of Mr. Graybill, just a mile west of Commerce near Lethbridge. These were Gold Coin potatoes and non-irrigated, and the small plot yielded 15 tons and 200 pounds. One potato weighed 52 oz. or three pounds 15 ounces, and there were over 200 potatoes which weighed between two and three pounds each.

ODE TO WHEAT

Gold is my coronal, golden my hair,
Yellow and gold, the robes I wear;
Daughter am I of the snows and the heat.
Ring out a cheer for me! I am the wheat.
Mine are the prairies, the brown earth is mine,
Tiller and husbandman kneel at my shrine;
Merchant and warrior bow at my feet.
I am the bread-giver! I am the wheat.
Praise for the mountains, stark, and so high,
Praise for the rivers, praise for the blue sky,
Praise for the flowerets, fragrant and sweet.
Queen of them all, am I! I am the wheat.

The Improved Ford Runabout

THE Runabout is one of the most notable body types among the improved Ford cars. The body is all-steel, with lower sweeping lines that give the car a sportive, restful air that assures for it a tremendous popularity.

With the new windshield, ventilating in the lower half, the dropped steering column and greater roominess, the comfort of this car matches its outward appeal.

Both utility and comfort have been served in enlarging the rear deck compartment.

HEARD ON THE STREET

Percy Pariah was all arrayed in a suit and on Thanksgiving Day, which was the envy of a bunch of the boys at Bobby Hanbly's Pool Parlor.

"That's some suit you are sporting," said Jim Swanson. "Did you get it in Calgary?"

"Calgary nothing, you poor fish," said Percy. "Don't you know that Young Wright gives you better value at lower prices than you can get in Calgary; besides you keep the dollars at home? No Calgary stuff for your crabs," said Percy Pariah as he lighted up another fifteen cent Havana.

Bill Wilkinson, one of the worst residents, was awakened rather early the other morning by the crowing of an ambitious rooster. "Damn that rooster anyway," he said, "it's been crowing for 'arf an' our'."

"That's nothing," said his wife. "You got up before me one morning a while ago, and you crowed about it for a week."

Bill Wilkinson, who inveigled Harry Gores into giving him a job as a cook, has returned to town for repairs. No word has yet been received in regard to any other casualties, and Coroner Moore has not been advised of any fatalities by Constable Tate, hence people are hoping under careful home treatment that William will soon be himself again.

Jim Weir thinks that while Thanksgiving is not an Irish institution, it has some real merit. First we can be thankful for the nice young pump turkey; we can also be thankful that we did not pick the New York Yankees to win, and also that none of the neighbors are taking saxophone lessons. Another thing to be thankful for is many of the old timers have led a long hard winter, and the chances are that it will be a mild one, and not in anyway interfere with nice long walks on Sunday evenings.

Pete Teller, when he was in town, was telling about a Scotch friend of his who was engaged to a girl who became so fat that he wanted to break off the engagement. But the girl couldn't get the ring off so had to marry her.

Farmer: "An' 'ow be the lawyer doing, doctor?"

Dr. Moore: "Poor fellow! He's lying at death's door."

Farmer: "That's right for 'ee-at death's door and still him?"

Bill Tierney: "Frank Miller just sent me $5."

Kelly: "What the —! he wouldn't lend me a nickel."

Tierney: "He wouldn't lend me a cent, either. He thinks he cashed a check for me."

Jim Swanson remarks that some people are queer. For example Dumb Dora thinks that Rex Beach is a summer resort; while W. Tierney, the expert tailor from Tooty's Corner, maintains that a cotton gin is a mirage.

An insurance appraiser was in town the other day, having been sent to a house to appraise the contents for insurance valuation. He began his entries in good form, and carried on until he arrived at a table on which an unopened bottle of Scotch stood. He entered in his report "one bottle of Scotch, partly full," next entry was "one revolving Turkish rug". Kelly says he wouldn't mind changing his occupation to that of giving full time to the matter of insurance appraising.

A little Calgary chap offered a chance to spend a week near Chebucto, but refused. Coaxing, pleading, arguing, promising of untold wonders, all this brought from him nothing but the stubborn ultimatum: "No country for me!"

"But why not?" someone asked finally.

"Because," he responded, "they have thrashin' machines down there an' it's had enough here where it's done by hand."

Jack Taylor (just recovering from a collapse, the result of a slight accident): "What's that ya has been giving me? Whiskey? And me unconscious?"

Traffic judge, 1926—Wrong side of the cloud, eh? Fifty dollars and costs.

An Englishman strolled into a diner where the majority of the guests were Scots. He stood the national programme as long as he could, then, at the limit of his endurance, he rose to his feet and said:—

"I was born an Englishman, I am proud to be an Englishman, and please

God I shall die an Englishman!" There was dead silence for a few moments, until an old Scot got up and said:—

"Mon, ha'e ye nae ambition?"

Aggie was a queer girl, but the other day she received a proposal of marriage from a man whom she had always regarded as a brother rather than a lover.

"Aggie," he began, "you know I have always turned to you, that I have always thought of you. May I—that is—would you—or—oh, hang it Aggie, will you be my wife?"

"Good gracious!" exclaimed Aggie. "What a start you gave me, Billy. At first I thought you were trying to borrow some money."

John Grogan: "You're the only girl I have ever loved."

She: "That's all right, dear; I don't mind beginners."

Tony McKinley says, as far as he can judge, the man who says he runs things at his home, usually refers to the lawn mower, washing machine, vacuum sweeper, and errands.

"I asked Casey Nerrings the other day what was the best thing for my wife's tender feet," said Tony Grogan. "He said 'rubber heels', but I forgot to ask him what to rub them with."

An Anglican Bishop of Liverpool suggests doing away with hell altogether. There are very few places to go to as it is, and it hell is done away with some people will be in a sorry plight, all dressed up and nowhere to go.

Customer: "Got any good pork?"

Don McLean: "Listen! I've got pork that will make beef look like salted than any lamb you can buy."

A little girl was at her first party. When the refreshments were served, she refused a second helping of ice cream, with a polite "No thank you," though she looked wistful.

"Do have some more, dear," the hostess urged.

"Mother told me to say 'No, thank you,' the little girl explained naively.

"But I don't believe she knew how small the dishes were going to be."

Jack Taylor and Pete Teller got into an argument a few days ago, which, for a time, became quite heated.

Pete, highly indignant, said to Jack: "You don't know enough to go in even when it rains. Why you can't even spell 'bird'."

"Bird?" said Jack.

"I tell you you don't know anything. Why, if you had to spell to make a living, you'd have been dead years ago. I'll bet you a fiver you can't spell 'bird'."

"I'll bet you," replied Jack.

"After the money was put down Jack said, 'Bird'."

"That's not the way you spelled it the first time," roared Pete.

"I winna betta" then," replied Jack.

Wife: "Doesn't it seem strange, John that after all those years I've never thought of a pet name for you?"

Husband (mildly): "Yes, dear. Why not 'John'?"

"How did you get on, Bobbie dear?"

The fair young thing flung her arms around the well-to-do young man, and breathed the words into his ear.

For Bobbie had been to see the girl's father, seeking her hand in marriage.

"Your father is a heartless brute!" he exclaimed. "I told him I couldn't live without you."

"And what did he say, dear?"

Bobbie hesitated a moment or two, then exclaimed savagely:

"Well, he be quite frank, the old wretch offered to pay my funeral expenses."

The Lady: "Are you really content to spend your life walking about the country begging?"

Tramp (confidently): "No, lady, many's the time I've wished I had a motor car."

Alice had just been kissed.

"You'll pay for that!" she stormed.

"I'll tell my father and he'll—"

Bobby: "But, dear—!" he started to object.

Alfred: "Shh! Here he comes now."

Mr. Blank: "My husband have any luck with his garden."

Mr. Green: "Oh, yes. He got no stroke and collected four hundred dollars from the insurance company."

PERSPECTS FOR REST ROOM GROWING BRIGHTER

Farm ladies will be pleased to learn that the Strathmore Women's Institute, have become seized with the need of a Rest Room, and while the matter has been before them only in an informal manner, it has met with such a cordial reception from the individual members that the provision of this convenience may be hoped for in the near future.

Recognizing the great need of a Rest Room for the accommodation of the farmers' wives and children, the members of the Institute feel that they will be assisting in the development and retaining of business in Strathmore, and they have come to the conclusion that if given reasonable assistance from the Town Council and the Bow Valley Council, that they will be able to devise ways and means to carry on, and provide a service that will be a credit to the Town of Strathmore.

Strathmore being situated so close to Calgary, it is necessary to do everything within reason to hold and develop the business of this trading territory.

Business cannot be retained by Strathmore solely in the giving of a dollar for dollar values, but through additional community services, especially those that appeal to the farmers' wives and daughters, will progress be made.

The Rest Room makes a head quarters where the women would feel at home and contented, and would pass away the time while John gets rid of his surplus gas setting all kinds of questions down at the garage, blacksmith shop, barber shop, or in the hotel rooms.

Strathmore is particularly fortunate among the smaller towns of the province, in receiving in addition to its agricultural revenue, the additional expenditure that is made through the Canadian Pacific Railway, in passengers and for supplies, and the making it the home of so many officials who are important factors in the town's welfare, through their work in community service of every kind in the churches, schools, council, fire brigade, and in the sporting clubs.

The Standard has no apology for noting this organization in particular, specially desiring to draw attention to the favorable position occupied by Strathmore over many other towns, but like many other things people receive during their lives, and accept as quite their right and simply a matter of course.

The Standard believes that a proper managed Rest Room would be no small factor in developing a business good-will that in the course of time would become invaluable; that the Women's Institute could undertake no other work that would be so much appreciated by the women and children of the district, and further, that there is no other unit in the town that is so well organized to make a success of this very much needed service. Let everyone assist these women in helping to make Strathmore a very popular town in which to do business.

TREES MAKE WARMER WINTERS; COOLER SUMMERS

In the discussion of the effect of trees or temperature Wesley Bailey Leach, city forecaster of New York, points out that if streets and parks were well supplied with vigorous trees we should have much cooler summers and warmer winters.

He gives as his chief reason for this theory the fact that the temperature of a tree never varies, in summer or in winter, from 54 degrees Fahrenheit. "If we stand on one of the main avenues on a hot day," states Mr. Leach, "when the temperature is 100 degrees Fahrenheit, and pass under the shade of a tree, we are refreshed by the cool air that meets us. What makes the change? Not the shade alone, but chiefly the fact that we are in the presence of a body that has a fixed temperature of 54 degrees Fahrenheit, or 48 degrees cooler than the street temperature."

Likewise, on a cold winter day, in passing from the zero temperature of the street into a group of trees, the warmth experienced is due not only to the shelter afforded by the trees but to the warmth of the trees themselves.

If an extensive program of tree planting was systematically followed on the prairies, the dry seasons that cause such heavy financial loss and worry would soon be a thing of the past.

FREAKS MAKE CHURCH WORK VERY DIFFICULT

The Church is a most wonderful organization, must be admitted by even those who have but little, if any, connection therewith.

Notwithstanding that many "freaks" have succeeded in obtaining important positions and offices in the Church, and from their vantage points express such vaporous as those delivered by the Rev. Dr. Fernholm, in regards to lobbed hair for women, which puts the Church into an unfavorable position.

The kinds of trickery which many evangelists use in endeavoring to secure candidates to hit the saddest trail, creates unfavorable criticism.

The Church has to carry such a handicap as that of Almes Macpherson, at Los Angeles, whether innocent or guilty the publicity certainly is unfavorable.

The Church has suffered through being exploited by many of its members and adherents, but notwithstanding all this, it still survives and carries on its mission of mercy and service, reaching out, endeavoring to help and assist the people, not only spiritually, but materially, rendering services, especially in hours of trouble, unknown to the great mass of the people.

Most of the social services through which the people are helped, may be traced directly to the Church, or through its members in the majority of the other organizations.

Up-to-date there has been no organization yet developed that in any way compares in effectiveness for the good of the people with that of the Church.

MORE RECORD YIELDS

Thrilling returns being received by the Provincial Department of Agriculture continue to show some record yields of wheat throughout the province, though the grades so far found to be somewhat lower than usual.

The following have reported yields of more than 40 bushels to the acre: G. H. Kynia, Sylvan Lake; J. Footsch, Strome; J. Ingram, Vulcan; O. Hickman, Vulcan; A. Hopkins, Vulcan; J. Galloway, Fort Saskatchewan; F. Moninger, St. Albert; Mr. Baker, Leduc; Gus Johnson, Fernie; Wm. New, Inas; Wm. McDevine, Rabbit River; Joe Belmont, St. Albert; W. Hogins, Edmonton; R. Mackay, Nanton.

The following have reported yields between 35 and 40 bushels per acre: R. Fraser, Munson; O. Charlois, Carbon; A. Teaschout, Vulcan; J. Carlson, Chapin; J. Oates, and J. Oatway, Clairmont; D. Milne and D. Hicks, Rochford Bridge; G. H. Baker, Leduc; J.
